Jury Process

Failure to provide any of the requested information could invalidate your application to the jury process.

A non-refundable cheque of $25.00 is required to cover the cost of jurying your works. This cheque is to be made out to the Rideau Valley Art Festival, and mailed to the address above.

Following the jury process, you will be advised whether or not your application has been accepted for the following years Festival. If you have been accepted you can expect to receive further information and contracts early in the New Year. All applications, images and payments must be received no later than midnight on the first Friday of November of the current year.

Policies and Guidelines:

Artwork is understood to include paintings and drawings, sculpture, pottery, wood carving, and photo art.

Framed photo-mechanical reproductions are to be excluded from the display, except in the case of photo art.

Exhibitors are responsible for the supervision of their displays through out the Festival.

Exhibitors are required to set up their own displays on 4' X 8' aspenite panels which are provided by the Festival. A non-refundable deposit of $30.00 per panel, to a maximum of 6, is required in order to reserve panels at the Festival. The number of panels (4, 5, or 6) and the allocation of space is decided by the Festival Committee. A percentage of all sales and orders (20%) is payable to the Festival at the close of the Festival.

Thank you for your interest in the Festival.
